Spoken language	Developing children's confidence and ability in their spoken language and listening skills is an integral part of the Literacy and Language programme, throughout all year groups. Rules for discussion are explicitly taught and there is a poster for 'Effective discussion' that can be printed out and displayed in the classroom.
Pupils should be taught to:
'Listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers.'	The teaching sequence in every unit involves listening and responding to both the teacher and partners. The TTYP (Turn To Your Partner) and MTYT (My Turn Your Turn) signals are embedded from the start of the programme, so that frequent, structured discussion flows naturally through every unit.
'Ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge.'	Questions are encouraged throughout the programme, including a Big Question discussion at the end of Days 1-8 in every unit. These questions

 Choosing which shape of a letter to use when given choices and deciding whether or not to join specific letters
 Choosing the writing implement that is best suited for a task.
Writing - composition
Pupils should be taught to:
'Plan their writing by:
 Identifying the audience for and purpose of the writing, selecting the appropriate form and using other similar writing as models for their own. 	This process is integral to the whole programme. In each unit, children follow this process for writing both fiction and non-fiction texts.
 Noting and developing initial ideas, drawing on reading and research where necessary. 	Daily logs are kept by children in which they note down and develop ideas for their own writing.
 In writing narratives, considering how authors have developed characters and settings in what pupils have read, listened to or seen performed.' 	Throughout the programme, children discuss and explore how characters and settings are developed by writers in order to use similar skills in their own writing. For example, Year 5 Unit 1, children focus on the role of different characters in the development of the story. In Year 6 Unit 3, children focus on a historical story, set in 1938.
'Draft and write by:
• Selecting appropriate grammar and vocabulary, understanding how such choices can change and enhance meaning.	In the Year 5 and Year 6 programmes, children practise using appropriate grammar in their writing, focusing on aspects such as the use of relative clauses, adverbs, parenthesis, noun phrases and the passive voice. Careful choice of vocabulary is encouraged through a range of activities such as Word power and Build a sentence.

 In narratives, describing settings, characters and atmosphere and integrating dialogue to convey character and advance the action. 	The development of characters, settings and atmosphere through writing narratives is carefully structured, including the integration of dialogue, for example in Year 5 Unit 4.
 Precising longer passages. 	Summarising skills are practised through writing conclusions to discussion texts, for example in Year 5 Unit 6, and through preparation for journalistic writing in Year 6 Unit 1.
 Using a wide range of devices to build cohesion within and across paragraphs. 	Children are encouraged to use a range of devices in their writing to bring cohesion to their texts. For example in Year 5 Unit 1, children look at the way that pronouns, conjunctions and determiners can link ideas within a paragraph, and how adverbs of time can link paragraphs in an instruction text. In Year 6 Unit 6, children look at how adverbials, repetition and ellipsis can be used as cohesive devices.
 Using further organisational and presentational devices to structure text and to guide the reader [for example, headings, bullet points, underlining].' 	The use of organizational and presentational devices to structure a text is modelled in many non-fiction texts, then children are encouraged to write their own texts, using similar devices. For example, an instructional text in Year 5 Unit 1, an explanation text in Year 6 Unit 6.
'Evaluate and edit by:
 Assessing the effectiveness of their own and others' writing. 	Self and peer assessment is built into all extended writing activities, encouraging constant experimentation and improvement to work.
 Proposing changes to vocabulary, grammar and punctuation to enhance effects and clarify meaning. 	As above, the writing process is staged, so that there are plenty of opportunities to change and improve vocabulary, grammar and punctuation of written work, in order to increase its impact and clarity.
• Ensuring the consistent and correct use of tense throughout a piece of writing.	The need for consistent and correct use of tenses is emphasised in many units, for example in Year 5 Unit 4, the need for past tense usage in writing biographical texts.

• Ensuring correct subject and verb agreement when using singular and plural, distinguishing between the language of speech and writing and choosing the appropriate register.	The use of consistent Standard English is practised throughout the writing activities, as well as identifying appropriate opportunities to use less formal language and register. For example in Year 5 Unit 6, children look at the differences between language in newspaper reports, compared to dialogue in playscripts. They then write their own script.
'Proof-read for spelling and punctuation errors.'	Proofreading is built into the final stages of the writing process throughout all units in the programme.
'Perform their own compositions, using appropriate intonation, volume, and movement so that meaning is clear.'	Children are given opportunity to perform their compositions, for example in Year 6 Unit 5 to perform their own playscript; in Year 5 Unit 5 to present their own podcast.
Writing – vocabulary, grammar and punctuation
Pupils should be taught to:
'Develop their understanding of the concepts set out in English Appendix 2 by:
• Recognising vocabulary and structures that are appropriate for formal speech and writing, including subjunctive forms.	In Year 6 Unit 3, children develop their understanding of language appropriate for formal writing, including the use of the subjunctive.
• Using passive verbs to affect the presentation of information in a sentence.	The use of passive verbs to create a specific impact in a non-fiction text is focused on in Year 6 Unit 3.
• Using the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause.	Year 5 Unit 4, children look at past tenses including the perfect tense.
• Using expanded noun phrases to convey complicated information concisely.	In Year 6 Unit 1, children explore the effect that expanded noun phrases can have in conveying detailed information concisely in a fiction text.
• Using modal verbs or adverbs to indicate degrees of possibility.	In Year 5 Unit 3, children look at how modal verbs and adverbs can be used to express different degrees of possibility.

•	Using relative clauses beginning with who, which, where, when, whose, that or with an implied (i.e. Omitted) relative pronoun.	In Year 5 Unit 2, children develop their understanding of relative clauses through looking at their use in both fiction and non-fiction texts.
•	Learning the grammar for years 5 and 6 in English Appendix 2.'	Using correct grammatical terminology as specified in the National Curriculum is an integral part of the whole reading and writing programme.
'Indic	ate grammatical and other features by:
•	Using commas to clarify meaning or avoid ambiguity in writing.	In Year 5 Unit 6, children look at the effect of commas in clarifying meaning in a descriptive text.
•	Using hyphens to avoid ambiguity.	Year 6 Unit 5.
•	Using brackets, dashes or commas to indicate parenthesis.	Year 5 Unit 4.
•	Using semi-colons, colons or dashes to mark boundaries between independent clauses.	Year 6 Unit 1.
•	Using a colon to introduce a list.	Year 5 Unit 1, a colon introduces a list of ingredients in a recipe and children are encouraged to look at the use of organizational and presentational devices and incorporate them into their own writing.
